

The Chamber of Tax Consultants

TRANSFER PRICING

A Compendium

Volume 1

2022

Chapter 29

Analysis of Secondary Adjustment Provisions under Indian Transfer Pricing Regulations

Gaurav Shah (B.Com, ACA) is Founder, Gaiea Consulting LLP. He has vast experience in advisory, representation and compliances relating to international taxation and transfer pricing matters, and specializes in transfer pricing.

Vandana Shah (B.Com, ACA, DIIT (ICAI)) is Founder Member, Shah V G & Co. Chartered Accountants. She has vast experience in advisory, representation and compliances relating to international taxation, transfer pricing, expatriate taxation and FEMA matters.

Synopsis

Particulars	Page No.
1. About Secondary Adjustment	959
1.1 Concept of Secondary Adjustment.....	959
1.2 Definition of Secondary Adjustment.....	961
1.3 Forms of Secondary Transactions.....	962
2. Relevant concepts and definitions under Indian transfer pricing regulations	963
2.1 Conditions for making a secondary adjustment	963
2.2 Exclusions from secondary adjustment provisions	964
2.3 Operation of secondary adjustment provisions	964
2.4 Time limit for repatriating excess money and manner of computing imputed interest.....	965
2.5 Interest Rate	966
2.6 Alternative Option	966
2.7 Definition of "Secondary Adjustment"	967
2.8 Definition of "Primary Adjustment"	968
2.9 Definition of "Excess Money"	968
3. Salient Features of secondary adjustments under Indian regulations	968
3.1 Applicability to international transactions	968
3.2 Taxpayer's agreement to the primary adjustment	969
3.3 Onus on the taxpayer	969
3.4 Threshold of Rs. 1 Crore	969
3.5 Adjustment in the books of account also.....	969